A BILL FOR

An Act to repeal section thirty-nine point thirteen (39.13), Code 1946, and to provide for the election of one commerce commissioner for a six year term in 1948, and for the election of one commerce commissioner for a six year term in 1950, and for the election of one commerce commissioner for a two year term in 1950, and for the election of one commerce commissioner every two years thereafter for a six-year term.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

1     Section 1. Section thirty-nine point thirteen (39.13),

2     Code 1946, is hereby repealed.

1     Sec. 2. One (1) Iowa Commerce Commissioner shall be

2     elected at the general election in 1948 for a term of six (6)

3     years, and one (1) Iowa State Commerce Commissioner shall be

4     elected at the general election in 1950 for a term of six (6)

5     years, and one (1) Iowa State Commerce Commissioner shall be

6     elected at the general election in 1950 for a term of two (2)

7     years.

1     Sec. 3. One (1) Iowa State Commerce Commissioner shall

2     be elected at each general election thereafter for a term of

3     six (6) years.

EXPLANATION OF H. F. 456

This will make possible the shortening of the ballot after the general election of 1950, and will assure the people of the state of there being at least two members of the commission with at least two years experience serving on the commission.
